ADAIR LOOKS GOOD

HELM TALKS TO APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE MONDAY

Follows Ed Morrow at Columbia And Shows Beyond Doubt Why Wilson Should Be Re-elected

Congressman Harvey Helm returned Tuesday morning from Columbia, Adair county, where he spoke to a large crowd Monday. It was court day and voters were there from the far ends of the county. Hon. Edwin P. Morrow had the call on the court house, he having been advertised to speak there for nearly a month. Mr. Morrow spoke, after a lengthy introduction by Judge Wallace Jones and made what Mr. Helm termed "a creditable republican speech." He was not abusive nor did he ridicule the opposing party, as so many of the republican spellbinders do. He touched on the Mexican situation, and declared that President Wilson should have declared war on Germany for sinking the Lusitania. He was without doubt forgetful that Congress, and not the president, calls the country to war, and this being the case, some big republican leader might have introduced a resolution calling for war. But this was not done, as all know.

The republicans listened well to Mr. Morrow's remarks, but they were evidently not in a humor for applauding as that demonstration was conspicuous by its absence. Mr. Morrow's discussion of the tariff was what might have been expected of a republican speaker—they all claim to want a high protective tariff.

At the conclusion of his speech, Mr. Morrow left for Lebanon where he was billed to speak that evening. He insisted on the crowd remaining to hear Mr. Helm and it did so and was well repaid for so doing.

Congressman Helm was introduced by County Attorney Gordon Montgomery, a close relative of Hon. C. to hasten the formal entry of that F. Montgomery, of Liberty. Mr. Montgomery led his relative's fight in Adair in August but he is just as warm for Mr. Helm now as he was destruction and move unhampered for Senator Montgomery then. Mr. Heim found his the most extensive strokes of the hearers most responsive and he ad- offensive, and gave the Germans a mits that he never spoke to a more! courteous audience. His references to Mr. Wilson were vociferously applauded, many of the republicans joining in the cheering. The War Last Week

Teutonic allies were assailed from every direction during the week and, aside from occasional claims from Berlin and Vienna that attacks in certain quarters had failed, reports made a story of almost unbroken progress for the entente allies. On the Saloniki front, where the troops of nearly all the entente allies are fighting, the British crossed the Struma River and attacked Bulgarians, withdrawing a few days later, but Servians continued an offensive in Macedonia and reported important gains. Bulgars were also said to be retreating from Greece, invaded with some success a few weeks ago, and likewise abandoning Varna, their principal port on the Black Sea.

Rumanians continued their offensive against Austrians in Transvlvania, forcing the enemy to retreat, Miss Nannie Lee Frayser, elementa- dren died in Lawrence county last this result being admitted by Vienna. Russian progress in the Carpathian region was not disputed, but Berlin claimed to have checked their advance toward Lemberg from the southeast. The Muscovites also made headway in their operations against the Bulgarians in conjunction with Rumanian forces.

On the west front the French and English armies reported highly important successes, the former havng cut the Bapaume-Peronne road, constituting a vital line of communication for the Germans. This advantage was strengthened by the taking of German trenches near Combles. Violent counter attacks by the Teutons were reported to have been repulsed.

Rod Keenon, chairman of the board, is just as good a democrat in every way as Oldham, and has been prominent in his party and deservedly enjoyed its entire confidence, long before Oldham ever got in front of the footlights where he could attract some attention with his babyish mouthings. No one who knows him believes for a minute that Keenon's going to do anything to hurt the democratic party, while Oldham with his baby act, seems to want to focus the attention of the party on himself rather than upon Woodrow Wilson and the harmonious sentiment which prevails in all elements of the party to roll up an overwhelming majority for him in Kentucky this fall.

Men's Fine Shoes

Men are particular about their "Sunday Shoes;" they want them good; they want them comfortable, and they must be good lookers. . Men are learning how to fit their feet so they will be comfortable. Manufacturers are constantly changing and improving lasts and styles, but of all the times since shoes were made, when it was necessary for a man to be onto his job to get the quality, it is during the high war prices of today. The Walk-Over Shoe people, one of the largest consumers of leather and acknowledged the most widely known shoe in the world today, are putting the same quality of leather in their shoes and the prices are still in the reach of all—$4, $4.50 and $5—the same quality as always; style and workmanship improved and price but little advanced. Our fall stock is here, the beautiful shades of dark tan, black calf and kid in any last from a young man's narrow English toe to the older man's wide Kentucky flat. Walk-Overs at $4, $4.50 and $5 have the other fellows beaten this time-let us show you.
